

Hey there!

Weta Workshop is the multi Academy Award winning special effects company that helped create movies like The Lord of the Rings, Avatar, District 9, King Kong and The Chronicles of Narnia. We are currently at work on movies including The Hobbit and The Adventures of Tintin.

We're all about creativity, fun, inspiration, passion and adventure!

We offer the following type of premium services for corporate events:

1. Exclusive experience at the Weta Cave.

The Weta Cave is a unique visitor experience showcasing the creativity of Weta. We are based at Weta Workshop in Miramar, Wellington. The Weta Cave is open to the public from 9am to 6pm each day and is available for private bookings (up to 60 people – standing room only) after 6pm.

We provide creative ideas tailored to suit your event :

- Presentations from the artists / actors / managers who worked on our movies
- Art demonstrations; design, sculpting, sword making, prosthetics, etc
- See the props and replicas from the movies
- A 20 minute behind the scenes video, exclusive to the Weta Cave
- Goody bags stocked with cool Weta merchandise
- Drinks and hors d'oeuvres supplied by caterer, or dine at a nearby restaurant

Our base fee for after hours venue hire is $1,000. We can then work with you to create an additional package of services to meet your needs. Give us a call to discuss your ideas !

2. Enhance your Corporate Event

We have artists / actors / managers who are able to come to your location to :

- Give presentations / talks / demonstrations / team building. We want to have some fun with your audience and will adapt to your needs. For example :
 - Weta – what we do, history, movies, highlights
 - Auditions for the Movies ! – audience involvement
 - Inside stories on the making of the movies
 - etc
- Give art demonstrations; design, sculpting, sword making, prosthetics, etc

Feedback from our Customers :

Brian Lynch, NZ ABAC Alternate Member

*“Our deep appreciation for the part that Weta Workshop played in helping to make the recent Asia-Pacific Business Council meeting in Wellington such a notable success...
...The meticulous attention to detail in your organization of the function, the warm hospitality, the ready willingness of artists and staff to interact with guests, and not least the presence of the “Oscars”, combined to make this occasion a memorable highlight of their week in Wellington”*

Keith Simnor - Sony Pictures Home Entertainment

“The team at Weta were fantastic in putting together an experience and presentation format that was second-to-none. We were thrilled with the response from our invited guests. The event is still talked about today, 6 months later. I wish more venues had as much impact as Weta Studios. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend the team and the venue”

"I have been staff for TheOneRing.net for the past several years, planning Oscar parties and Conventions, and in 2008 I organized the Cruise to Middle-earth. In my professional life I happen to work at a travel agency, so this was the perfect melding of work and personal interest for me. The cruise sailed down the coast of New Zealand with stops in several ports near Lord of the Rings filming locations. Numerous fans of the films signed on to go after seeing it publicized on TORn, but they weren't the only ones who contacted me. The fine folks at WETA Workshops saw that we were coming down and asked if we might like to stop by and take a tour.

It was clear from the start that WETA wanted our group, just normal fans, to come and visit and were very accommodating to our needs. They greeted everyone like long lost friends, showed us several presentations, including peeks at a brand new TV show they are working on (mums the word) and then took us around the various work stations in the facility. They then took us to a very yummy lunch nearby, and then it was time to shop in the brand new Cave, which sells various film and TV collectibles that WETA has been involved in. Everyone in the group loved their day at WETA and I'm quite sure all of them would go back again. The staff at WETA are so easy to work with, I know that I intend to visit again the next time I bring a group to New Zealand."
